Explore our vineyards and food ingredients and experience wines and food and wine country at leisure. For your two and a half day tour we fly to Auckland to meet you, then fly to Cape Reinga, New Zealand's most isolated point. It was here that the Maori first landed and spoke to the Pacific Ocean. We walk the beaches at Cape Reinga and enjoy lunches by the water. We continue to the Wairarapa wine region which is home to many of our prestigious vineyards. In the afternoon we drive to Wellington where we enjoy wine and food highlights and meet with our wine makers. Finally, we return to Auckland. Luxury coach, flights, hotels Day 1 – Auckland City Highlights Breakfast Welcome to Auckland and our touring trip begins today. On our first full day you will get the chance to explore the city.

Highlights include visiting the Auckland Museum to see the magnificent displays by innovative local artist Peter Robinson and enjoy a tasting of world class wines at the Blue Door Wine Bar. Afternoon Enjoy a full afternoon of shopping and sightseeing at the Queen Street Mall. Once one of the largest and busiest shopping centres in New Zealand, today's shopping district has been restored to become one of the capital's most popular tourist attractions. The Queen Street Mall contains many famous New Zealand brands such as TK Maxx, Cafe Black, Café Culture and many more. Enjoy a light lunch at the wonderful Old Rectory Restaurant. Evening Take this evening to kick back and relax. Opt for a walk around the City of Sails to take in the beautiful harbour, or make your way to the evening cruise on the Hauraki Gulf aboard the Hobson Glen. This one hour cruise is perfect for a romantic cruise to watch the sun set over New Zealand's third largest city. DAY 2 – Wellington to Bay of Islands

Morning After breakfast, we board our aircraft and fly through the Napier-Okakari Gorge and enjoy the beauty of the Bay of Plenty. We fly through the Hauraki Gulf
